THREE MILLION WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN BELGIUM STARVING

GENERAL GERMAN RETREAT IN WESTERN THEATER HAS NOT BEGUN, AS EXPECTED

Alfred, Hovet of White Britain, Turkey, of that to be H

Wash Nov. 2.—Martial law was proclaimed today throughout Egypt. An official notification by the British diplomatic at Cairo was delivered to American there.

London, Nov. 2.—Although four days have passed since the Turkish warships ran amuck in the Black sea, neither Russia or Great Britain had, up to noon today, so far as was known in London, opened the offensive, or even formally declared war against Turkey.

The British press as a whole treats the situation as having reached a stage permitting no about-face by the government of the Sultan. Thus, while the struggle in France and Belgium remains undecided, Germany and Austria have at last acquired their first ally, barring the rebellion of the Boers in South Africa, and the area of the fighting in the great war, after 90 days of hostilities, has spread over the borders of Asia into Egypt.

Along the battle line, in the western area, from the Swiss frontier to the Belgian coast, there has been no decisively important change in territory for a fortnight, although there has been a slow advance of the extreme allied left, through the sand dunes and across the canals of West Flanders.

All reports seem to agree that the tide of battle in this section is flowing against the Germans. It is felt in London that it will take some time yet to decide whether they must abandon their attempt to reach Calais to accomplish what they already have paid so dearly for.

Retreat, so often predicted and even anticipated by the British, French and Russian newspapers, had not yet in today. Although the allies were reported with a short walk of Ostend, the taking of which, as the first captured city on the sea, was hailed in Berlin only a few days ago as a stroke of the first strategic importance.

The fighting in the vicinity of Ostend, on the south side, apparently waged throughout Sunday. Sluis was disturbed all day by the thunder of guns, while from the battle front German wounded moved back in the direction of Bruges. The fact that the allies apparently have been gaining consistently so near the coast line indicates to British observers how valuable have been the services of the warships which hold their positions in spite of the presence of German submarines.

Assuming that Turkey's casting in of her lot with Germany is an accomplished fact, the British press admits that the cruisers, Goeben and Breslau, are a serious menace, as Russia has nothing to compare with them in speed and equipment. As to the Turkish army, however, formidable as it is in size, the opinion here is that it will not be an efficient fighting machine under modern conditions. Concerning the campaign in Egypt, England feels that in Lord Kitchener she has just the man to meet the situation, for no European, perhaps, has a better knowledge of the country than he. Turkish army corps are said to be moving in the direction of the frontier.

Turkey, it is argued in London, will endeavor to accomplish three things: first, the invasion of Egypt; second, the blockading of the Suez canal; and third, the stirring up of a "Holy war" among the 70,000,000 Mohammedans in India as well as among the religionists in Egypt. It is this last contingency which Great Britain regards with the most concern.

The week is likely to see the crystallization of the sentiment in Italy and the Balkan states as regards Turkey's entrance into the conflict. Italy, according to the British point of view, is at the cross roads and is hesitating.

Today came a despatch from Amsterdam quoting the Berlin Lokal Zeiger, to the effect that Rumania will modify her attitude of neutrality provided the other Balkan states remain out of the conflict. German papers announce officially that all of the coast of Asiatic Turkey has been blockaded by mines, thus spreading to the east the danger which is confronting shipping in the west.

AMBASSADOR FROM UNITED STATES TO BRITAIN ASKS AID

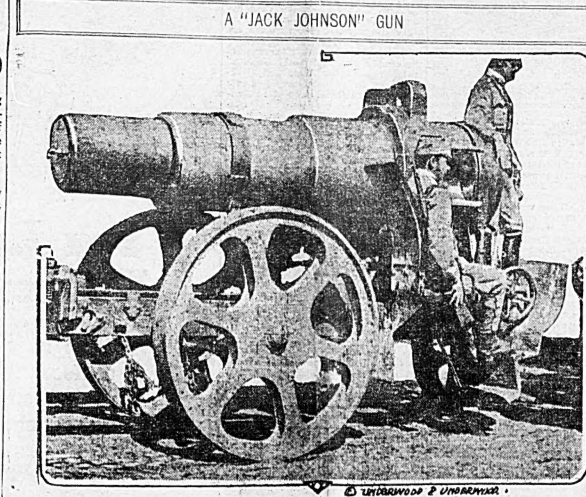

Wants Committee of Mercy to Send Shipload of Food to Belgians.

New York, Nov. 2.—Three million women and children in Belgium are now suffering actual hunger, according to a cablegram from Walter H. Page, U. S. ambassador to Great Britain, received here today by Norman Hapgood, of the Committee of Mercy.

I hope you are in a position to buy and ship immediately a boat load of food to the American consul at Rotterdam, under a neutral flag," reads the cablegram.

Alberta Pays Off in London Last Short Term Notes—$3,600,000

Premier Sifton announced today that the Alberta government had paid in London today $3,600,000 worth of short-term treasury bills. This was the last short-term indebtedness the province had, all the balance being borrowed for long terms, and it is considered very satisfactory for the province to be in a condition to be able to pay off such a large amount at such a time. The province is now, says Mr. Sifton, in splendid shape financially and the payment today will no doubt tend to even strengthen the confidence of investors in Alberta, both in government and other securities.

This is one of the monster Austrian siege guns which, because of its size and power, has been named "Jack Johnson" by the British soldiers. These guns were used by the Germans in bombarding Namur, Maubeuge and Antwerp.

ALLEGED BAD MEN CLEVERLY ROUNDED UP BY DETECTIVES

Thousands of Dollars Worth Stolen Goods Found in Their Possession.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW SAFE IN SOUTH SIDE BUTCHER SHOP

Frank Heaton, Charles Pierson and James McMillan Must Face Charge.

Three alleged yegmen faced Magistrate Macleod in police court Monday morning, charged with burglary. They were heavily handcuffed and were closely guarded by three policemen. The men are Frank Heaton, Charles Pierson and James McMillan. The first two are known about the city but the third, McMillan, is not a familiar figure here and is alleged to be a confirmed coke fiend. They were remanded for eight days.

In the arrest of these three men, the police believe they have rounded up a high degree. The men must face a charge of attempted safe-blowing. For some time the complaints have reached the police department that houses and apartments had been entered and robbed of many valuables and the greater portion of these goods had been recovered in the rooms occupied by the three suspects.

On Saturday the police detectives started in earnest to locate their men and had very meagre descriptions of them from parties in the city who had been the victims of their craft. Detectives Broadbent, Cobb and Effenberger were detailed on the case and to these men must be given the credit for having first identified their men after hours and hours of careful shadowing and finally with having affected their arrest on Sunday morning. A number of places in the city were watched closely and with the descriptions on hand the men were seen to enter Lewis Bros. cafe on First street and from this point the shadow work of the detectives began. Detective Effenberger had stood on the street opposite Lewis Bros. on Saturday night during the trouble at the Bijou theater with the variety students and it was shortly after that time that the men were seen to leave the cafe and were immediately shadowed from place to place. One of the men was wearing a stolen overcoat. After walking the streets some time they entered the Eskimo pool room and there effected a disguise and for a time were lost sight of by the detective detailed to watch them.

Aiken May Retire.

London, Nov. 2.—Sir Max Aiken, unionist member of parliament for Ashton-under-Lyne; Harry Thwait, labor member for Wigan; and William Eddis, liberal candidate for Sir Max Aiken's seat, found themselves on the same platform at the Lancashire Free-Trade Federation yesterday. It is believed that Sir Max probably will retire from political work at the general election.

A "JACK JOHNSON" GUN

DOMINION TO PROHIBIT EXPORTATION OF NICKEL EXCEPT TO THE ALLIES.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—The announcement that the government had decided to prohibit the export of nickel from Canada, except to Great Britain, France and Russia, was received with great satisfaction at the capital. The order-in-council was signed Friday and went into effect Saturday. Canada possesses the largest and richest nickel deposits in the world, so that the shutting off of Germany and Austria from securing nickel may in the end have a vital influence on the war.

There are only two large nickel mines in the world, one at Sudbury and the other at New Caledonia, a French colony.

"A meeting of the electors of the city of Edmonton will be held in the council chamber in the city hall on Monday, November 9, from the hour of eleven o'clock until noon for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of mayor and alderman for the unexpired term of W. J. McNamara and James East respectively."

The above notice will appear in each of the three daily papers on Thursday of this week and similar notices will be posted about the city for Edmonton on Monday, November 9, from the hour of eleven o'clock until noon for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of mayor and alderman for the unexpired term of W. J. McNamara and James East respectively.

It is stated this morning that a petition is being circulated about the city asking that W. J. Magrath run for the office of mayor and it is also believed that Dr. H. B. Smith, alderman, will be the candidate for the office. Detailed announcements are expected to be forthcoming at the Tuesday night meeting of the city council.

HEAVY PENALTIES FOR TRADING WITH ENEMIES IF BRITAIN ARE FIXED.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—In order to punish council just issued fixed penalties for violation of the order against trade with Britain's enemies. On summary conviction anyone guilty of trading with an enemy is liable to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 12 months, with or without hard labor, or a fine of $5,000, or both. On conviction on indictment the penalty is five years, or a fine of $5,000, or both, and the confiscation of goods or money in respect to the offence is optional with the court. When a company is the offender, every director, manager, secretary or other officer who is a party to the contract is guilty of the offence.

TURKISH VESSELS DO CONSIDERABLE INJURY TO CITIES

Former German Cruiser, Goeben, However, is Damaged by Land Batteries.

Petrograd, Nov. 2.—(Via London)—The newspapers report that the cruiser Goeben and Breslau, and four Turkish torpedo boats bombarded the shore near Sebastopol yesterday morning. The Goeben, which sailed from the eastward after inflicting trivial damage.

Odesa, on the Crimean coast, 100 miles northwest of Sebastopol, also suffered a bombardment on Saturday, when a Turkish cruiser sailed close enough to throw 20 shells into the city. News has been received at the foreign office that the Russian ambassador has left Constantinople, but the Turkish minister here has not yet received his passports or instructions from Constantinople.

Petrograd, Nov. 2.—(Via London)—A despatch from Sebastopol says that the former German cruiser, Goeben's bombardment of that Black Sea port was put to an end by the Constantinople batteries, which forced the warship to withdraw. The shore station subsequently investigated a wireless telegraph message from the Goeben, which said: "Damaged. Will return to Constantinople for repairs."

London, Nov. 2.—A despatch to the Times from Petrograd, dated Sunday, says that a British vessel, the Frederic, was illuminated and scuttled during the bombardment of Novorossiysk. The Turks also reportedly bombarded Amara, a Russian seaport of the Black sea at the western extremity of the Caucasus range.

London, Nov. 2.—A Rome despatch to the Central News asserts that the Turkish gunboats are reported at the entrance to the gulf of Suez. Numerous detachments of Turkish cavalry, according to the same despatch, have reached Akaba, a fortified village of Arabia, on the gulf of the same name.

JUDGE DECLINES ALLOW INSURANCE ON LIFE OF TITANIC WRECK VICTIM

Montreal, Nov. 2.—The claims of the executors of one of the victims who perished in the wreck of the Titanic were dealt with by Justice Deneen in the local court here Saturday. His Lordship denied the right of the National Trust company to collect the sum of $5,000, accident insurance issued on the life of Thomas Beattie, of Winnipeg, by the Accident and Guaranty company.

The policy was issued in 1906 and was kept paid up. The defendant declined to meet the claim on the grounds that affirmative proof of the insured's death had not been furnished within the time specified in the policy. Such failure on the part of the executors, according to the terms of the policy, invalidated the contract. The court found that the executors' submissions to be truly based on the terms of the contract. Suit was dismissed with costs.

PARIS DECLARES GERMAN ATTACKS FULLY REPULSED

Kaiser's Forces not Only Fail in Attempted Advances But Have to Retire.

SORTIE ON HEIGHTS OF AISNE PROVES FAILURE

In Vosges Positions Where Big Guns Worked From Have Been Captured.

Paris, Nov. 2.—The French official announcement, given out in Paris this afternoon, says that yesterday the Germans attacked on the French left wing particularly between Dinanville and the Lys, continued with great violence. In spite of the counter attacks of the enemy in this region the French made slight progress.

The text of the communication follows: "On our left wing the German offensive continued yesterday with the same violence in Belgium and the north of France, particularly between Dinanville and the Lys. In this region in spite of the attacks and counter-attacks on the part of the Germans, we made slight progress on almost the entire front, excepting at the village of Messines, a part of which was again lost by the allied troops."

"The enemy undertook an important movement against the suburbs of Arras. This resulted in failure, as did other movements against Libour and Lequesnoy-En-Santerre.

"On the center, in the region of the Aisne we made slight progress in the direction of Tracy Le Val, to the north of the forest of Argonne as well as at certain points on the right bank of the Aisne between this forest and Soissons.

"At Amont De Vailly, an attack directed against those of our troops who were in possession of the heights on the right bank of the Aisne, also resulted in failure. The same outcome attended several night attacks delivered in the heights of the highway Desdames.

"In the region of Reims, between the Argonne and the Meuse, and on the heights of the Meuse, there was noticed yesterday a recrudescence of activity on the part of the enemy's heavy artillery. The battle of the Pieche, however, did not show any appreciable results.

"On our right wing an offensive movement of reconnaissance by the enemy was repulsed.

"In the Vosges, in addition to the fact that we have recaptured the heights which dominate Mont Sainte Marie, we have made progress in the region of Basse Sapt, where we occupy positions from which the artillery of the enemy has been bombarding the town of Saint Die."

London, Nov. 2.—The secretary of the admiralty Saturday night made the following announcement: "The old cruiser Hermes, Captain C. R. Lamb, was sunk today by a torpedo fired by a German submarine in the straits of Dover as she was returning from Dunkirk. Nearly all the officers and crew were saved by the exact loss of the vessel is not yet ascertained until the men are rescued. The loss of the vessel is of small naval significance."

Two men killed, nine injured and about 40 missing represent the casualty list.

Armored Train Routs 10,000 Germans—British Then Pursue

London, Nov. 2.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail in Northern France relates how a force of 10,000 Germans was completely routed and scattered by an armored train. He says: "The Germans had almost surrounded a British regiment, which fought on doggedly though vastly outnumbered. Suddenly an armored train shot up on the railway line which the British were holding. Right and left the train poured broadsides of machine gun fire, moving down the Germans at every yard until the line on each side was covered with heaps of German dead. The rest fled precipitately and the British pursued."

BERLIN CLAIMS LITTLE CHANGE ON WEST FRONT

Announcement Also States that Battle with Russians Continues Undecided.

ADMIT, HOWEVER, THAT THEY HAVE "RETIRED"

Austrians Claim "Complete Victory" in Southern Galicia, Ejecting Russians.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—(By wireless)—The battle in progress between the Germans and Russians in the Silesia and the Austro-Germanic regions, according to an official announcement issued here today, continues undecided.

The Austrians, in an unofficial report, claim a success in the Marea region of northwest Serbia, ousted by the rivers Save and Drina.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—(Via London)—Official reports from the western front show little change in the situation in northern France and Belgium but events in Poland would appear to be shaping the Russian campaign. In the fighting the main forces of Russia and the Austro-Germanic allies.

The Austrians and the Germans have completed their retirement to new positions previously selected by them. The Russians came into touch with this new line. There were several encounters in which the Russians were driven off.

"The Austrians in southern Galicia have succeeded in crushing back the Russian left flank which for several days had been making a desperate stand in carefully prepared positions between Turka and Stryi. Sambor. The Russians employed the push in the fighting after the Austrian retirement against their own forces in this new line. There were several encounters in which the Russians were driven off.

"The Austrians also report further successes in Bukovina. They have retained their hold on Czernowitza against a Russian attack and they have defeated a Russian force to the north of Kuty. A British report of the loss of British cruiser Hermes last Saturday was not much noticed here this afternoon. No particulars, however, were given.

JUDGE DECLINES ALLOW INSURANCE ON LIFE OF TITANIC WRECK VICTIM

Montreal, Nov. 2.—The claims of the executors of one of the victims who perished in the wreck of the Titanic last month by Justice Denison in the local court here Saturday. The lordship denied the right of the National Trust company to collect the sum of $100,000 accident insurance issued on the life of Thomas Beattie of Winnipeg, by the Accident and Guaranty company. The policy was issued in 1906 and was kept up until the defendant declined to meet the claim on the grounds that affirmative proof of the insured's death had not been furnished within the time specified in the policy. Being Tau Attacked Continues.

Peking, Nov. 2.—A wireless despatch received here from Tsing Tau, the fortified position on the border territory in the German territory of Kiau Chau, says the general attack by the Japanese commenced. No statement is given as to the fighting progress as transmitted.

Patricias May Be Fighting.

Port Arthur, Ont., Nov. 2.—A letter received from Salisbury Plains tells that the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry expected to go to the front about November 1.

Armored Train Routs 10,000 Germans—British Then Pursue

London, Nov. 2.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail in Northern France relates how a force of 10,000 Germans was completely routed and scattered by an armored train. He says: "The Germans had almost surrounded a British regiment, which fought on doggedly though vastly outnumbered. Suddenly an armored train shot up on the railway line which the Britishers were holding. Right and left the train poured broadsides of machine gun fire, moving down the Germans at every yard until the line on each side was covered with heaps of German dead. The rest fled precipitately and the British pursued."

BERLIN CLAIMS LITTLE CHANGE ON WEST FRONT

Announcement Also States that Battle with Russians Continues Undecided.

ADMIT, HOWEVER, THAT THEY HAVE "RETIRED"

Austrians Claim "Complete Victory" in Southern Galicia, Ejecting Russians.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—(by wireless)—The battle in progress between the Germans and Russians in the Suvvali and the Augustow regions, according to an official announcement issued here today, continues undecided.

The Austrians, in an unofficial report, claim a success in the Mayva region of northern Galicia, controlled by the rivers Save and Drina.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—(via London)—Official reports from the western front show little change in the situation in northern France and Belgium but events in Poland would appear to be shaping themselves for a renewal of the fighting the main forces of Russia are carefully prepared to meet.

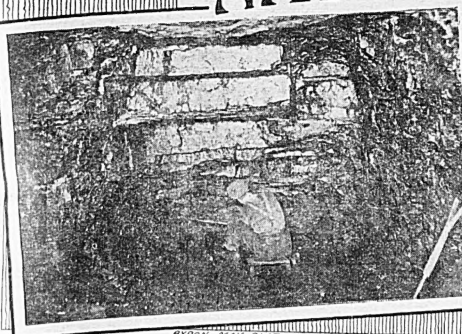

The Austrians and the Germans have completed their retirement to new positions previously selected by them. The Russians came into touch with this new line. There were several encounters in which the Russians were driven off.

The Austrians in southern Galicia have succeeded in pushing back the Russian left flank, which for several days had been making a desperate stand in carefully prepared positions between Turka and Strzy, Sambor. The Russians employed the pause in the fighting after the Austrian retirement from this region to retrain themselves. They built strong fortifications which were made more difficult of access by the broken nature of the country. Consequently it was a hard task to eject them. The Austrians claim a complete victory and report that the enemy was driven from all his positions in the region.

The Austrians also report further successes in Bukovina. They have retaken their hold on Cernomirsk against a Russian attack, and they have defeated a Russian force to the north of Kuty. A British report of the loss of British cruiser Hermes last Saturday was made public here this afternoon. No particulars, however, were given.

A despatch received here from Constantinople says it is understood that the Turkish government will permit the subjects in Turkey of the power companies to continue to interfere with those desiring to leave the country.

RULES FOR THE ABRIGATION OF REASONABLE PERSONAL LIBERTY

When Sam Hughes was grandstanding for the benefit of the Canadian electorate he bid strongly for political capita with his dry canteen, bellowing to the moral reform association and the band of hope and various other organizations that he was the gent who would see to it that their theories of diet and decoction were implacably imposed upon Canadian soldiery. For his class of advertising Sam was a most persistent searcher and his panacea gave birth to some shockingly intolerant displays of callous selfishness. One of these occurred down at St. John, or some such Maritime burg a year or so ago where there was a little affair at which the boys in uniform were gathered to whoop it up for the old flag on water and the inspiration of Hughes' grandiose oratory. Some of the younger lads, failing to recognize the necessity for compliance with the artificiality of the situation, smuggled in a pop-bottle or two of the hard stuff, surrounded it, accumulated a mild obsequiousness and permitted their enthusiasm to become evident to the head of the Canadian militia. Quite possibly they were decent enough boys at that, although a trifle unsophisticated in the wiles of Canadian politics; at any rate they were eloquently offering their lives to their country, as their uniforms eloquently testified, and they were undoubtedly entitled to better treatment than they received. But here were a bunch of "goats," and Sam needed the advertising. So calling out his biggest guns from the press bureau, Colonel Sam had the lads publicly pilloried, heaped execration upon them until they were simply smothered in odium, had them ignominiously stripped of their uniforms, "canned" from their country's service and "mugged" in the newspaper press from Halifax to the Alaska Panhandle—all for the glorification of the violent virtue and tremendous temperance of Hon. Sam Hughes. It is the Hughes way.

When the Canadian contingent reached Salisbury plain, however, and were placed on a war footing where the orders of the day take no count of the pretensions of self-righteous politicians, the sham of all this clamorous advertising came in for somewhat of an exposure. The Imperial military authorities paid no more attention to Sam Hughes' dry canteen regulations than as though they had never been heard. Soldiers in Great Britain are not placed on the "Indian list" in concession to some politician's desire to capture the temperance vote. In such matters they are conceded the right to govern themselves accordingly to what their own experience indicates as the course or reasonable common sense. Smith-Dorrien, who is some soldier himself if anyone should consult General French about it, says that this business of making interdicts of compenents is all tommyrot. At the Aldershot training camp he had 200,000 men whom the professional temperance agitators wanted placed on the "Indian list." Smith-Dorrien's answer was to tell his men that they were free to exercise their own fancy about going into the pubs but to use a little common-sense. Four men over-stepped the limit of discretion. In France they are serving wine and brandy rations to the harried soldiers in the trenches and it has not yet been noticed that Sam Hughes' fearsomeness of the consequences prompts him to take the place of any one of them. Kitchener's no-booze clause, which was seized upon with such avidity by the prohibition publicists, is simply a common-sense provision by which indiscriminate presentation of special labels is taboo—a provision which puts an effective quietus on the distillery advertising agents.

Sooner or later the Canadian people, if they watch the progress of the war, will come round to the point of view that men who are mentally and physically capable of defending the empire are also capable of properly ordering their own lives without the aid or imposition of rules for the abrogation of a reasonable personal liberty.

CANADIAN NICKLE KEY TO INTERNATIONAL POLICE

Canadian mines at Sudbury, controlled by a trust, produce 80 per cent. of the nickel of the world, with France producing the remaining 20 per cent. In New California, and Germany, of late years—since she became obsessed with the militarist plague—has been buying 60 per cent of what Canadian mines produce. So that from Canadian mines Germany has been allowed—with a blindness on our part that now seems inconceivable—to draw the absolutely essential metal for the construction of warships, armored automobiles, cannons, saw-toothed bayonets and black-barreled automatics with which to equip the kaiser's legions for the subjugation of the world, Canada included.

Canadian newspapers are now discussing what policy should be pursued to provide that never again shall such things be. An export duty, government supervision of sales, an embargo and various other expedients to bring the disposition of nickel within government control are suggested. But all these, by presuming that nickel shall still be supplied to certain favored nations for the purpose of making the machinery of war, while others shall be refused, falls short of the complete realization of the "cinch" which Canada holds in this nickel monopoly.

By the simple method of taking over the nickel business as a government monopoly, refusing a single pound for armament purposes to any authority except an international police, and denying nickel for any purpose to any nation which persisted in armament, Canada could compel disarmament and the establishment of an international police to give force to the Hague peace pact.

PROPOSED SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT IS SUBJECT AT FORUM

Speakers on Sunday Evening Mainly Favorable to Elective Commission Plan.

The Peoples Forum met last evening in the new quarters of the Garland theater, A. H. Newman was the leading speaker. Commission form of government was no new thing, said he. It had been re-discovered 12 years ago and had been successfully applied, both in England and in the United States, by this method of civic government responsibility was definitely fixed on the men who were at the heads of government departments. "I gave them their entire time to the needs of the city," were always approachable and responsive. The objection has been raised that this system gave too much power to one man, but there was always a check and balance. As a result in reserve to remove any man who failed in his duty to the city. Commission government was not an experiment, it had been tried and proved successful.

The discussion which followed was mainly favorable. W. B. Turner, Esq., Alderman James East, A. M. Nicol, Esq., of the Aldershot, and Mayor W. J. McNamara, C. Lewis and Rev. C. F. Potter took part and much interest was shown in the animated debate which followed the address. Next Sunday evening Rev. C. F. Potter will address the Forum, "Armageddon, Is this the Last War," in the Garland theater at 7:30.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will be back fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delicious effervescent lithium water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

HAD DYSPEPSIA

So Bad Could Not Take a Drink of Water Without Suffering.

Dyspepsia is one of the most difficult diseases of the stomach there is to cure. You eat too much. Drink too much. Use too much tobacco. You make the stomach work overtime. You make it perform more than it should be called on to do. The natural result is that it is going to rebel against the amount of work put on it. It is only a matter of a short time before dyspepsia follows.

That old, forty year old remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters, will cure the dyspepsia and will cure it to stay cured as we can prove by the thousands of testimonials we have received from time to time.

Miss Sarah McRae, Newfield, Ont., writes: "I write to say that I have used your Burdock Blood Bitters, and have found it the best remedy I have ever used for dyspepsia. Two years ago, I had stomach trouble so bad that I could not eat anything without feeling bad after effects."

Burdock Blood Bitters is an old and well tried remedy but on account of the many substitutes we would ask you to make sure that our name appears on both the label and wrapper as this preparation is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WANTED—A SENSE OF HUMOR.

In the old land practical pokers have their Saint's day on April 1, and on November 5 the "boys" of all ages do there indulge also in protechnic pranks upon peaceful citizens and parade in honor of a mythical king abolisher.

Here, having expended their fireworks earlier in the season, the irrepressible—known elsewhere as "hoosigans" or "roughs"—are reduced to the pitiful expedient of making nocturnal sorties upon the unoffending (?) backbones of the architects of the modern overgrown "boom."

Of course, these lanceolates may be actuated by extreme reform ideas of protest against these domestic abominations, and may be sincerely desirous of some such revolutionary doctrine that the common or garden citizen is entitled to disregard the rights of others, and to claim sewer and water privileges as a mere taxpayer, whether related to a real estate alderman or not.

But nevertheless, the sense of humor is conspicuous by its absence, not only on the part of the householder who has to repair the damage next Sunday morning, who, viewing his robbed and ravaged garden, wonders what on earth he pays taxes for—but also on the part of the perpetrators, who might easily discover a more profitable source of present amusement and future joy than the spectacle of a line full of overturned abominations if they would but exercise a little ingenuity—and possibly one with less necessary exertion.

The removal of a few prominent ugly bill boards, not only of the impudent "Sole Sale" variety, but those standing in the way of free "natural beauties," the procuring of an empty shack and its planting at a cold corner (say Kirkness and Alberta) as a much-needed waiting room for street cars; better still, the transporting of a dozen or so unnecessary lights from Jasper and the west to the stygian darkness of the north and east, where the sidewalks disappear and the policeman never appears; these would be not only absorbed under Halloween license, but to quote a recent judicial decision, could claim to be "praiseworthy, if dissipated." The policeman who looks the other way while high-spirited youths abstract vegetables from a hard working man's garden plot could hardly do otherwise if the same hand would fill up a few holes for fun which the city for economy has left in our roadways.

Considering the physiological and psychological components of the Canadian, it is hardly remarkable that the sense of humor is rather confused and crude.

Perhaps these few remarks may assist to clarify it.

GERMANS AND AUSTRIANS LIVING IN THIS DISTRICT. MUST REGISTER IN CITY

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—In accordance with the recent order in council passed by the government various points throughout the dominion will be officially designated registration centers for the registry of Austrians and Germans. Already Montreal has been so designated, and the registrar, S. H. Carpenter, commissioner of police in the interior department, and formerly chief of detectives in Montreal, and police chief in Edmonton, has been appointed registrar. In addition to Montreal registration bureaus will be established at Ottawa, Sydney, Port William, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver and probably at other points, if found necessary.

It is possible that arrangements may be made in the west whereby Germans and Austrians living long distances from the point of registration may be enabled to take out their parole without the necessity of going to the bureau.

Only such men as are believed to be strictly dangerous will be interned. Others will be placed under surveillance.

AMERICAN AUTHORITIES REFUSE LET CANADIANS GO THROUGH THE STATES

Fort Frances, Ont., Nov. 2.—The Fort Frances troops which left enroute to Winnipeg Saturday night without arms and dressed in mufti, were held up at Headwater by the United States immigration authorities and refused permission to pass through that part of Minnesota. They were forced to turn back and arrived here yesterday afternoon on a special after which they were attached to a fast freight and taken to Port William and proceeded onto Winnipeg from there. The American authorities evidently construed the of the soldiers passing through the states, even if in bond, as breach of neutrality although they were unarmed.

LARGE CROP AREAS EXPECTED IN 1915

Farmer of St. John Says Acreage Will Exceed This Year's by 400 Per Cent.

That four times as large an acreage will be cultivated and harvested in the country northwest of Edmonton in 1915 as this year, is the prediction made by W. E. Hodgkinson, of St. John, which is about 45 miles northwest of the city. On cultivation depends, to a great degree, the crops, even with the rich soil, says Mr. Hodgkinson. This year those who really cultivated their land secured 72 bushels of oats to the acre and 35 bushels of Marquis wheat.

The people of Pembina constituency have organized an association for the collection of money for the patriotic fund. Local branches are also being formed to facilitate collections.

Gordon Macdonald, member of the legislature for the constituency, is honorary president of the association. If the crops are as large as expected next year, the Edmonton Northwestern railway, a bill for which was introduced at the recent session of the house by Mr. Macdonald, will help to solve the transportation problem. The bill was passed and, it is said, construction early in the spring.

SATURDAY'S RACE MEET PROVIDES GOOD SPORT TO FAIR SIZED CROWD

Prince Phillthorpe Wins 6 Furlongs Dash—John Marrs Nosed Ahead and Beat Dan Field in the 5 Furlongs—Bookie's Framup Was "Called" in the Second Harness Race—Dr. B. P. and Grey Ghost Win in Straight Heats.

There was quite a pleasurable time spent by several hundred horse race fans on Saturday afternoon at the opening of the Edmonton Fair. The fall race meet at the exhibition grounds, although the track was a little hokey from the rain of the previous week, to insure any record breaking times being made, the weather was fine, even if cool, and some thrilling finishes in the various races provided ample excitement to warrant their attendance at a day's race at even such a late fall date as November first.

And even the bookies were there. At least one of them. And a very distinct change from the accustomed participation from men. Of course, one bookie was quite enough to handle the rush of cin that bettors were wont to throw on their favorite steeds and line-shoot winners were the rule rather than the exception. In fact, one winner so long and juicy a shot that the bookie risked in something like $500 to the other starters. But alas! It was too raw a deal altogether, and the judges announced that all bets were off. This announcement was made much to the delight of many who had placed their bets on Grey Ghost and Sir Wilfrid in the second heat of the second race, the 1 1/2 mile, run in half mile heats. This scheme of the bookie was noticeable more than once on Saturday. The horse he believed should win was placed on the board at so long odds that bettors believed that horse had no chance in the world, and therefore there was little money placed on him. However, when he romped home a winner, many were heard to remark, "I told you so. I was just going to take a chance on that horse."

The first race, the free for all, had three entries and was won in straight heats by Dr. B. P. in the following times for three heats: 1:09, 1:08 1/2, 1:07 1/2. The other entries were Prince Joe and Lilly W., who finished second and third respectively in each heat. It was not an exciting race, as the Dr. had it all his own way at all times.

The second race, the 1 1/2 mile, was interesting to say the least, and took five heats to decide. Sir Wilfrid and Grey Ghost, two old rivals, were entered along with Lon McDonald. The liberal leader took the first heat in 1:11 1/2, and then came the second heat and the fun. Lon McDonald, who had finished third in the first round, was not conceded a chance with either of the other two. However, the bookie had it all doped out ahead of time and placing Lon on the board at 10 to 1, nobody, or at least few, took any of it. When the horses got away, Lon was 2 to 1 shot and came home a winner after much jangling had been done down the back stretch. His time was 1:13 1/2, and he had no license to win. It was plainly a frame-up, and the judges were warranted in calling all bets off. Then followed a grand scramble in the second round, and many were seen to carefully gather together the dozen or more scraps they had torn that cardboard into after thinking their good coin had been lost. The third, fourth and fifth heats were taken in race fashion by Grey Ghost, the best time being 1:10 1/2.

Harness Dixon, a Westsylvan steed, went to the post the favorite in the 4 1/2 furlongs dash. Even money were offered by the bookie and many cashed. Jelliflower, carrying a considerable money, ran second, with Ruth H third. The time was 1:01 1/2. Tuscan finished fourth and Killarney Doll fifth.

There was a real horse race finish in the five furlongs dash, with four entries. Three known horses and one outsider were starters. Neville, Dan Field and Tiste, all well known locally, were each conceded a chance and Neville, the Edmonton stable entry, was a strong favorite. However, John Marrs, a Toronto pug, was entered, and coming down the home stretch nosed out Dan Field for first place, with Neville running third. The Toronto horse ran a beautiful race and the finish was the closest of the day. The time was 1:06.

That renowned horse, Prince Phillthorpe, scampered home a winner in the six furlong dash. The Prince started a favorite and ran a beautiful race. Sam Hank carried a lot of small bets, but was left at the post. Old Cross ran in second place with Mammy third. Tromaro finished in front of Mammy for third place was disqualified for lack of weight. The time was 1:20.

Another long shot romped home in front in the 4 1/2 furlongs dash. This was L. M. Eckert, on whom the bookie offered 5 and 6 to 1. The favorite, Cole, was played heavily at even money, and finished second with the famous Marcue third. The distance was too short for Marcus and the bookie offered 5 to 2 on him. Marcus and Burt ran a dead heat for third place. Old Gutch, offered at 6 to 1, finished last. The time was 1:24.

CANADA TEACHING
UNITED STATES A BETTER FOOTBALL

Some American Colleges Have Already Changed Style of Their Game.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton.)

Judging from the developments in football thus far this fall, America is evolving another great national game, a game worthy the name of football. The evolution of the great college game affords an interesting study, and the lovers of the old, bruising, battering style of game, the mass formations, the heavy line bucking, will be shocked and the cry of heroes will arise when they learn what immense strides in development the old game have been made.

Twenty-five years ago a few of our American colleges played a game called football. There was some science, some kicking and some long passing of the ball. It was, however, a mass game, a little battle of force rather than skill. It was art of war applied to eleven men on a side.

Instead of opening out and playing more freely, the game became one of closer and closer formations, heavier and heavier assaults, a little kicking as possible, practically no passing of the ball. It was a strong man's game. As the game spread, the roughness and often the brutality of it aroused protests.

Those who made the rules for football heard the storm of protest and commenced striving to lessen the roughness. In so doing they remade the game. The western schools three years ago two years ago and last year opened up and commenced playing a faster, more spectacular, and more risky game. The east refused to abandon the old straight football and persisted in heavy battering of the line and occasional end runs. Suddenly it dawned upon the coaches of the great eastern schools that they were far behind the west in the matter of offensive play, although still superior on
